WASHINGTON, Feb 20 - Senator-Bankley of Kentucky, the Democratic leader, narrowed the congressional program today to time major legislative items. 1. Conlinning the reciprocal iride program. 2. Broadening the Hatch "antipolitics" law 3. Approving the tennaining appropriations measures. Although some Democratic leaders predicted adjournment by May 13. Bankley said he was not ready to revise his forecast that the session would end by June 1. The house, pushing abond with the session would end by June 1. HOOVER ASKS HOUSE TO ASSIST POLES ready to revise his forecast that he session would end by June 1. The house, pushing ahead with the appropriations bills, took up a $203,472,567 measure providing funds for such non-military activities of the war department as flood control. The cinef controversy developed over a proposal by Rep. Bland, Democrat of Virginia, to restore a $15,080,000 fund and a $99,000,000 contract authorization to build an extra set of bomb-proof feels in the Pannina Canal. The locks, which would be reserved exclusively for the navy's use yere disapproved by the appropriations committee.

Strike Northwest

By The Associated Press
PORTLAND, Ore., Peb. 28—
Floods and sudden, disastrous winds which swept the Pacific northwest left widespread damage today and a death toll of at least three.
Two men were killed at the Oregon Lumber Co in Bates yesterday when a pine tree, uplooted by the wind, toppled onto a truck. Everett Price, 26, Prairie City, was crushed in the truck, and James Crockett of Baker, Ore., was struck by a limb of the falling tree. stand for maybe a month the tersific pressure. That would give

"I have told them all that the controom only accommodates about 50 spectators and that it is not possible to make reservations," he said. "They will just have to come and take their chances on getting in."

McCormick, calm in his just cell, will enter Judge Samuel E. Kramer's common pleas court-room Monday to be tried for first degree murder. He is accused of the Jan. 8 holdup-slaying of Theodor Nichols, a special guard, in Western Union Telegraph Co.'s main office a few steps from Euclid avenue and East Nirth street. Court attaches say the case has acoused more pre-trial interest than any murder case they remembered. Morsefield said 90 per cent of those asking him for reservations are women, and that he has had 40 requests this week, alone.

"I do not see what object will be gained by my seeing either of them," my father said dryls, "After I inspect the markings, I might wish to see Queen Olga, although it lan't ikely. But please make my excuses to Mr. Veritzen, and teit him that I simply must conserve my strength, or any other plausible explanation which you can fit into your conscience."

He smited sardonically at me as He smiled sardonically at me as the Underwoods and Dicky entered.

"This is a theory to which I cannot subscribe," he said. "But we mustif neglect a single clue, so I think we ought to go into it, Margaret, do you think it would hurry matters if you went after those markings now?"

If I had answered him honestly, I would have said "No," but I humored his impattence and rose quickly.

Suspicious Movement

Suspicious Movement
"I can only try," I said, and left the room. But I knew better than to go directly back to Queen Oiga's suite, for she could not possibly have finished the markings in so short a time, so I went into my own room for a brief breathing space, and sat down by a window which overlooks the bit

I know that guards were placed

I know that guards were placed all around the farm house, and when I saw a movement of the underbrush I thought at first one of the guards was stirring there. But as the movement continued, steathily, slowly, but steadily getting nearer, I resolved that some intruder had cluded fine guards and was advancing toward the farm house.

Frank S. Naylor, 49, of 781 East Church street suffered bruises and abrasions on the face, chest and knees about 9:30 p. m. when the car he was driving skidded onto the C. & O. raifroad crossing on Silver street and collided with a string of freight cars being syitched onto a siding. He was confined at his home today but was not seriously injured it was not seriously injured, it was reported,

Mr. Naylor, who was eastbound on Silver street, told police he at-tempted to stop when he saw the crossing watchman standing in the crossing watchman standing in the street but that the car skidded. Police quoted the watchman, Charles Harris of 369 Milburn avenue, as saying he had placed sait on the ley pavement east of the right-of-way but had not placed sait west of the tracks where the car skidded. The trout end of the car, a light 1937 boach, was badly damaged, police reports show.
